WAHENGBAM TOMBA SINGH MEMORIAL MERIT AWARD

This award was instituted in 2016 by Wahengbam Nimai Singh of Lairenjam Awang Leikai, Vice-Principal, Kamakhya Pemton College, Hiyangthang in the memory of his beloved father Late Shree Wahengbam Tomba Singh.

Shree (Late) Wahengbam Tomba Singh was the last son among the children of (L) W. Angangmacha Singh and (L) W. (O) Chingnangkombi Devi. He was born on the 19th July of 1927 at Lairenjam Village. He was a diligent worker who enjoyed giving others the goodness shake since he was young. Additionally, he had a stronger interest in social development projects. His desire of becoming a Pradhan was fulfilled in 1970 when he was elected as a Pradhan in the Lairenjam-Irom Meijrao Gram Panchayat.

His most notable development projects have involved creating communal ponds in various locations and turning waste land into more than 120 Shangams of cultivable land. In addition, he served as Founder Secretary for the Lairenjam Sorarel Seva Committee. He believed that “Mina Migi Aphaba Thabak Khara Toubasi Mini” (Being good human to others is human). As he grew older, he provided services to people as a Maiba-Panji (priest and astrologer). He passed away on January 3, 2015. The Wahengbam Family has been deeply influenced by his opinions.

The award aims at remembrance of Shree (Late) Wahengbam Tomba Singh who is greatly loved and missed by the Wahengbam family. It also seeks to inspire students and inculcate (L) Wahengbam Tomba Singh’s perceptions of serving humanity in pursuing higher education and contributing maximum to the society.

This award consists of cash Rs.3000/- and a citation in the name of the student(s) who has/have successfully completed their B.A (H) exam in Chemistry with the highest score in the graduating semester.

WAHENGHAM CHAOBA SINGH MEMORIAL MERIT AWARD

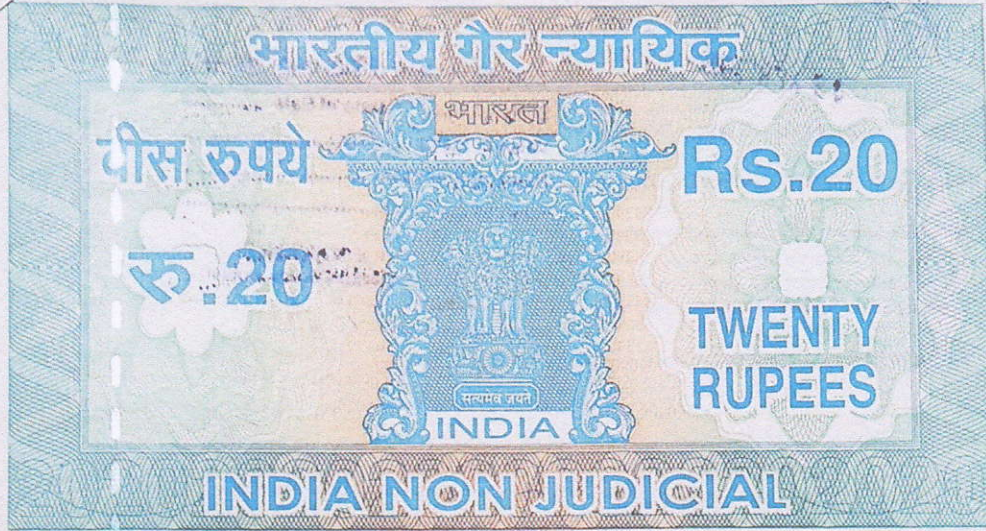

The Award was instituted on 2016 by Wahengbam Robindro Singh, an Assistant Professor and Head of the Biotechnology Department, S Kula Women's College, in honour of his devoted father, (L) Wahengbam Chaoba Singh.

Wahengbam Chaoba Singh born on 4th June 1946 at Lairenjam Awang Leikai, Imphal West. He was the first son of W. Iboton Singh and W. (o) Khuraileima Devi. His parents were kind and considerate to him as he grew up. He had showed special affection and care of all the animals around him since he was a young boy. His wife Hawaibam Ibeyaima also had the same affection towards animals. With four girls and three sons, they led a contented and peaceful life. Disregarding all of these miseries, they raised their kids to be ideal social beings. On December 15, 2013, W. Chaoba Singh departed, having fulfilled his worldly obligations.

It is an annual merit based award for students who has/have successfully completed their B.SC (H) exam in Botany with the highest score in the graduating semester.

MERIT AWARD

SANASAM NINGOL MOIRANGTHEM ONGBI CHANU SURBALA MEMORIAL MERIT AWARD is an annual merit based award for students has/have successfully completed their B.SC (H) exam in Physics with the highest score in the graduating semester.

It was instituted in 2016 by SanasamAjit Singh Mutum IndrakumarMeetei, Assistant Professor, Department of Geography at Kamakhya Pemton College, Hiyangthang, Manipur.

This award honours the memory of his loving late sister, (L) SANASAM NINGOL MOIRANGTHEM ONGBI CHANU SURBALA. Surbala was born on Friday the 5th Feb. 1965, the 4th day of Phairen at Hiyangthang. She was the 3rd child out of the nine children of SanasamKaoba Singh and SanasamLeiren Devi. She attended Hiyangthang Primary School for her early education and Kumari High School in Hiyangthang until class X. She subsequently studied at D.M. of College, Imphal, where she earned her B.SC. Physics. She worked as a physics educator for six years after earning her M. Sc. in the subject. The Revenue Department appointed her as an inspector thereafter. As a result, she was an extremely diligent and hardworking person. She was the recipient of numerous merit awards. Unluckily she is no more with us. She passed away on 20th February (Manipuri month of Wakching) 2002.

PEBAM BIMOL SINGH MEMORIAL MERIT AWARD

This award was instituted in 2016 by Pebam Redhesana Devi of Khabi Mayai Leikai, Bishnupur District, Manipur in the memory of his loving father Shree (L) Pebam Bimol Singh.

Pebam Bimol Singh was the only son of Pebam Netra Singh and Pebam (o) Sanatombi Devi. He was born on Friday of September (Langban) 1945. Working as a teacher at Model Higher Secondary (Tera), he contributed to Meitei-Mayek's development in Manipur. In addition, he co-authored numerous Meitei-Mayek books with Oja Kangjia Gopal, and during the time he was popularly known as "Bimol Pebiya".

During his time at Nambol Lairen Girls Higher Secondary School in Nambol, he made a contribution to the Khabi village's sports field development. Additionally, he gave a plot of land to Khabi village's women in order to build the "Khabi Weaving Shed". Additionally, he was the secretary of the "Khabi Khunja Seva" cooperative association. Because of his selfless assistance to the development of the Communist Party in Manipur under the leadership of Neta Irabot, together with Lamlai Parijat, Dr. Nara, and Kumbi Mangi, he was also affectionately known as "Comrade Bimol".

At the age of thirty-six, he departed on December 20th, 1981, leaving behind his two daughters.

This award consisted of a citation in the student's name and cash of Rs. 3000. It is awarded yearly to the Kamakhya Pemton College student with the highest B.A. History (Honours) mark.
